

FOR PRESIDENT
James G. Blaine,
OF MAINE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT
John A. Logan,
OF ILLINOIS.

BLAINE'S POLICY.
We believe in Blaine's foreign policy, because we are American and advocate a preservation and elevation of American dignity. For years the attitude of our Government, in its foreign relations, has been vacillating and weak to the verge of cowardice. The flag of the United States is looked upon abroad with contempt and ridicule, and deservedly so. A nation's power, in foreign ports, is gauged by the strength of its navy, and we have none to speak of. A nation's glory is rated by the protection it affords its citizens, and citizens of this republic, sojourning in foreign countries, have hitherto been thrown upon their own resources in resisting maltreatment of person or property. In the republic of Mexico, for instance, an American is treated with contempt, and robbed without concealment, by highwaymen and dishonest officials, because experience has taught the Mexicans that the government of the United States will make no sign. The foreign trade of Mexico is virtually in the hands of Germans and the English, and capital invested by them in that country is always secure, and why? Because their governments have uniformly demanded reprisal for every wrong perpetrated against their citizens, arbitrarily and without delay. On the other hand American capitalists refuse to invest in Mexico, because it is of record that Americans have invariably been robbed without governmental protest or hope of protection. In the election of Blaine all this will be altered. Ours will not merely be a government of money-loving peace-makers, but one commanding respect through a proper assertion of the dignity of power.

THE Star is full of left-handed compliments for Wise, a Democratic candidate for Congress. Of course, everybody knows what that means, but, although due allowance should be made for all laudable efforts towards meeting press expenses, a leading party-paper should reserve enough dignity to prevent even a fictitious support of such a ranting political pedler as Morgan A. Wise. The opening of his mental grip-sack, here and in Phoenix, and his display therefrom of tinsel promises accompanied by declarations of their weight and purity in gold, was enough to disgust the intelligence of a Government mule. He promised a branch Mint and $30,000 court-house for Yuma and offered to make an agreement in writing pledging himself to fulfill those promises. He is a personified burlesque of the Congressional Record bound in calf-skin. Of course, Democratic predilections are of but little value to the SENTINEL, but this territory will have interests in Congress other than partisan ones, and it annoys us to think that there can be even a remote chance of the election of such an impossibility as Wise.

The Star will make more by doing its growling after the nomination is made. It will not be Wise but wiser.

Harry Brooke will be apt to touch 'em up in the "ancient and honorable pueblo."

RUNNING COMMENTS.
Barter & Co., of the Index, are riding the Tax-payers' movement in Tucson, and the animal is bucking them sick at the stomach.

The Star is leaning towards Wise for Congress. Better straighten out, old man, for Arizona's seat in that body will never be filled by such an ass.

Johnny Behan captured the Democratic primaries in Tombstone. Although the SENTINEL's hopes are all for whoever may be the Republican candidates, nevertheless Behan made a very good Sheriff formerly, and would have made a better one had the law-abiding citizens given him proper support.

Republicans in all the counties should endeavor to elect members of the Territorial Council. It is of the utmost importance to the party that it shall hold a majority of that body, and it will be better for the Territory that the council be of the same political complexion as the Governor, for many reasons. Appointments can then be made without clash by reason of a failure or refusal to confirm.

Harry Woods and Chief of Police Coyle engineered the Democratic primaries in Tombstone. They are both shrewd manipulators, and, although the Republicans will undoubtedly carry that city, still Woods and Coyle are doing their best duty to their party when they support so good a man as John H. Behan. Democrats of Cochise county can do no better than nominate Mr. Woods for the Legislature.

Duncan and Wardwell are opposed to each other in a race for the nomination, by the Democrats of Cochise county, for Councilman. Both these gentlemen were members of the last Legislature in the lower House. The former proved himself to be an honest and capable gentleman, while the latter's conduct stamped him nothing greater than an ignorant, blatant, hypocritical and promise-breaking demagogue. As usual, the Democratic Convention at Tombstone will rise to its opportunity by nominating the fool.

Judging from the result of the Democratic primaries in Maricopa county, it appears that there will, probably, be a change of county officers in that region. Baker's vanity has evidently been made use of by means of congressional flattery, and he has run off the track. Being of small calibre the fall won't hurt him much. The vote given for A. D. Lemon showed a most thorough appreciation of him by the good people of Pecos—45 out of a possible 416. Dr. W. W. Jones received every vote but one.

It is rumored that Van Arman has drawn out of the fight for Congress, and that Yavapai county proposes to substitute the name of C. C. Bean. We hope the report is without foundation. Mr. Van Arman is a gentleman possessing, in an eminent degree, the qualities necessary in the making up of a good delegate. Mr. Bean is equally fit, and the SENTINEL, in the belief that there cannot be too much first class material presented for the choice of the Republican convention, would also like to see him enter into competition for the nomination.

Browder's argument that he is none the less a Democrat by belonging to the Citizens' and Tax-payers' party is the veriest bosh on earth. He is a member of the Democratic Central Committee, but as a member of the other organization he claims the right to vote for a Republican. Literally, in other words, he is a first-class renegade. We say to the Republicans of Pima county, don't be led astray by any such sophistry, but fight it out on a Republican line, if you lose. This being a Republican or Democrat with a mental reservation, can be nothing more or less than political dishonesty. A man has a right to belong to any political organization, but he cannot belong to two with conflicting interests and be trustworthy.

The following letter was received by prominent Democrats of Yuma:

TUCSON, A. T., Aug. 24, 1884.
GENTLEMEN:—I have, since I was at your beautiful village on the bank of the Rio Colorado, received every consideration which I could expect. In a word, I am pretty confident. I know Mr. Head is a perfect gentleman, and still he is not well acquainted with the voters in Congress. You know what parliamentary law is, to a beginner like the young students beginning to study Greek. It's a foreign tongue to him. I will give all my experience to them, the citizens of the territory may be assured. I hope you will adhere to me and I will show you a change from the past.

Let me hear from you by return mail. Kindness to all. Yours truly,
M. R. VISE.

Great God, from whom all blessings flow, deliver us from this egotistical ass.

That was a shrewd move made by Tommy Gates in behalf of the Tucson Democracy, a burial of differences, and Hiram Stevens. Unfortunately, the committee selected too many committeemen as convention delegates, and the job, consequently, became too attractive. Gates and Browder are evidently strikers for Stevens, but there is no comparison between the two—the former is all work, the latter all jaw. Stevens is a necessity to the Democrats of Pima county, but with or without him the Republicans should win.

MARRIED.
SAVALA-COZ.—In Yuma, August 23d, by the Rev. Father Chaucot, Juan Savala and Miss Lucia Coz, both of Yuma.
